March 18, 2018 at 8 and 10:30 a.m.

HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II

GATHERING OF THE PEOPLE OF GOD

NO PRELUDE DURING LENT (SINGING BOWLS TO SIGNAL PROCESSIONAL)

THE PENITENTIAL ORDER: Rite Two

BCP 351

The people standing, the Celebrant says

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

People: His mercy endures for ever.

THE DECALOGUE

BCP 350

The Celebrant says

Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these."

The Celebrant then says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The service continues as the "Lord, have mercy" ("Kyrie eleison") from the Taizé Community is sung three times

Ky - ri - e, Ky - ri - e, e - le - i - son.

Celebrant      The Lord be with you.
People            And also with you.

Celebrant    Let us pray: After a brief silence for reflection, the Celebrant says,
 Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST LESSON:      JEREMIAH 31:31-34

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

After the reading the reader says, “Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church,” and the People respond saying “Thanks be to God.”

PSALTER    PSALM 51:1-13    read responsively by half verse

BCP 656

1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness; *
 in your great compassion blot out my offenses.
2. Wash me through and through from my wickedness *
 and cleanse me from my sin.
3. For I know my transgressions, *
 and my sin is ever before me.
4. Against you only have I sinned *
 and done what is evil in your sight.
5. And so you are justified when you speak *
 and upright in your judgment.
6. Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, *
 a sinner from my mother's womb.

7. For behold, you look for truth deep within me, *
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.
8. Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; *
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.
9. Make me hear of joy and gladness, *
that the body you have broken may rejoice.
10. Hide your face from my sins *
and blot out all my iniquities.
11. Create in me a clean heart, O God, *
and renew a right spirit within me.
12. Cast me not away from your presence *
and take not your holy Spirit from me.
13. Give me the joy of your saving help again *
and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

THE SECOND LESSON: HEBREWS 5:5-10

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, “You are my Son, today I have begotten you”; as he says also in another place, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

*After the reading the reader says, “Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church,”
and the People respond saying “Thanks be to God.”*

SEQUENCE HYMN    H-441    “In the Cross of Christ I glory”    V.1-3    Rathbun

THE HOLY GOSPEL: JOHN 12:20-33

*Response to Gospel announcement is “Glory to you, Lord Christ;”
and at the conclusion “Praise to you, Lord Christ.”*

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor. Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—‘Father, save me from this hour’? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.” The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” Jesus answered, “This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.” He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

For Michael, our Presiding Bishop, for Holly, our Bishop and Warren, our Priest and all who minister in Christ, and for all the holy people of God. Lord, hear us.

People Lord, have mercy.

For those who are preparing for new birth in the waters of baptism this coming paschal season. Lord, hear us.

People Lord, have mercy.

For all the peoples of the earth and for mercy, justice, and peace. Lord, hear us.

People Lord, have mercy.

For the sick and the suffering, and for all who are in danger or need, prisoners, captives, and all who are in need (or you wish to name) especially those on our prayer list.....
Lord, hear us.

People Lord, have mercy.

For the faithful departed in Christ, and for those whose faith is known to God alone.
Lord, hear us.

People Lord, have mercy.

For our families, friends, and companions, and for all those we love (naming our blessings and thanksgivings, birthdays and anniversaries). Lord, hear us.

People Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant

Blessed are you, God of eternal life, who lifted up your Son from death. Receive the prayers we offer this day for all who walk in darkness and make your people children of light. Glory to you for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PEACE is now shared as the Celebrant offers this bidding:

Celebrant        The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People            And also with you.

PRESENTATION & PREPARATION OF THE TABLE

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING, Prayer C

BCP 369

SURSUM CORDA, responsively

Celebrant    The Lord be with you.

People        And also with you.

Celebrant    Lift up your hearts.

People        We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant    Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People        It is right to give God thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Celebrant and People say:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Fathers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

LORD'S PRAYER, contemporary translation in unison

BCP 364

Our Father in Heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD The Celebrant breaks the consecrated bread, and a period of SILENCE is kept. Then the Fraction Anthem is said

Celebrant Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

People Have mercy upon us.

Celebrant Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

People Have mercy upon us.

Celebrant Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

People Grant us your peace.

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

+ All Who Seek God and Are Drawn to Christ Are Welcome to Come to God's Table +

MUSIC FOR REFLECTION H-508 “Breathe on me, Breath of God” Nova Vita

THE LITURGY OF MISSION

Taken, blessed, broken, and now given - sent forth to serve the world

LENTEN POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER, in unison

Lord of this feast beyond measure and price; we thank you for meeting us in our brokenness so that none might be lost: liberate us now to share bread with our neighbor, each receiving from the other what we need to be most truly ourselves. Amen.

A Joint Lenten Study Wednesday Evenings

I'm pleased to invite the St. Mark's Community to gather with parishioners from St. John's, St. Cyprian's and Emmanuel Episcopal Church for a Lenten 2019 study. Each of the four Episcopal parishes in Hampton will host one evening of the study. We will begin each evening with a simple soup, bread and salad supper at 6 pm followed by the program beginning at 6:30 and concluding with Compline at 7:15 p.m.

The schedule of the remaining site and subject follows:

- The Rev. Dr. Ron Ramsey on how all of this shapes the message of the church for the world--March 21st at St. Cyprian's

I encourage you all to make time to participate in this offering to get to know folks from other parishes and explore the gifts and challenges that our congregations share in striving to do Mission and Ministry in Hampton. In order to help plan food for each week please email me at padrewarren@stmarkshampton.org if you plan to attend and which weeks you will join us. --Padre Warren
